[Lexical Borrowings from the Ottoman Turkish Language in the New Bulgarian Written Monuments of the 17th – 18th Centuries (from the Material of the Odessa Damaskins)]

Abstract: The article deals with lexical borrowings from the Ottoman Turkish language in the New Bulgarian monuments of the 17th–18th centuries. Based on the material of the Odessa Damaskins from the collection of V. I. Grigorovich, an attempt was made at semantic classification, the purpose of which is to study the ways of spreading Turkish borrowings and the scope of their use in the Bulgarian folk language. The group of lexical units analyzed is considered as part of the general Bulgarian lexical fund in its stylistic variants, as well as at the level of everyday speech activity.

Keywords: Turkish borrowings; New Bulgarian Damaskins; history of the Bulgarian language
