

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

for manuscript preparation of the papers from the onomastic conference entitled “Anthroponyms and Anthroponymic Researches in the Beginning of the 21st Century”

Sofia, 20 – 21 April 2021

Submitted papers should be in one of the following languages: Bulgarian, English and Russian.

Text length should not exceed 12 standard pages (1800 characters per page), including references, footnotes, tables, images, and appendices.

The full text should be sent as .doc or .docx, as well as in .pdf format, by 1 February 2021. As reviewing will be blind, papers submitted for review should not include the author(s)' name(s) and affiliation(s). Self-references that reveal the author's identity should be avoided.

If fonts different from Times New Roman are presented in the text, they have to be sent, too. Please, use ONLY Unicode fonts.

MANUSCRIPT REER-REVIEW PROCESS

All the manuscripts are subject to a double-blind peer-review process and based on it a paper is going to be accepted/rejected. Authors will be informed about the decision for their text by 1 March 2021.

ARTICLE MANUSCRIPT STRUCTURE

The article manuscript should start with the following elements:

- Author(s)
- Title

and should end with the rest:

- Acknowledgments
- References
- Abbreviations
- Article title translated into English (if the text is written in a language different from English)
- First name(s) and surname(s) of the author written in Latin alphabetic characters

- Abstract in English
- Key words in English
- Information about the author in English

The cover page should be structured as follows:

Author(s): All the author's names have to be written according to the pattern shown:

First name(s), SURNAME

Title: Alignment: Centered, Bold

If figures, tables and images are used, they should be numbered and included in the main text in the place where mentioned for the first time, not at the very end of the paper.

Footnotes:

Footnotes should be used, not notes at the end of the text. Font size 10 pt.

Intext citation:

NB! Please, do not use footnotes for quotation!

Use the surname(s) of the author(s) and the year of the publication put into brackets as follows:

For quotation of papers written in Latin alphabetic characters:

Citation of a whole book:

One such example is Dan Dana's analysis of the heritage of Zalmoxis (Dana 2008).

Citation of a page/pages:

The deverbative noun ... (Hamp 1982: 165 – 166; Markey 1985: 209).

Как правило, чем выше мотивирована супплетивная форма, тем больше шансов она имеет на сохранение (Dressler 1986: 41 – 44).

If the author's name is mentioned in a sentence from the text:

Понятие было введено одним из главных теоретиков данной теории – В. У. Вурцелем (Wurzel 1989: 70 – 111).

Citation of texts written with Cyrillic or Greek alphabetic characters

NB! For transliteration from Cyrillic or Greek alphabetic characters, please, use the standard approved by the country official authorities, for example, Bulgarian names and titles, written in Bulgarian, should be transliterated according to the Transliteration Act of the Republic of Bulgaria.

Both languages shared the devoicing of the PIE glottalic stops (Дуриданов / Duridanov 1976: 101).

These are the object of detailed analyses in his numerous and interrelated publications (Дуличенко / Dulichenko 1981).

Касаткин проанализировал особенности говора с. Татарица (Касаткин / Kasatkin 2008).

Citation of online sources:

NB! For quotation of sources available online, follow the pattern valid for paper sources, i. e. use the name(s) of the author(s) and the date, the both put into brackets. If the author is unknown, use the title and the date instead (if the title is a long one, write down only the first several words). For every citation of an online source of information there should be a corresponding article in the reference list.

Acknowledgements are placed after the main text.

Reference structure

The references should be presented in an alphabetic order (initially sources written in Latin followed by Cyrillic and Greek alphabetic characters); titles written in Cyrillic and Greek should be transliterated and the transliterated variant to be given in square brackets after the original text. See the examples below!

NB! For transliteration from Cyrillic and Greek alphabetic characters, use the standard approved by the country official authorities, for example, Bulgarian names and titles, written in Bulgarian, should be transliterated according to the Transliteration Act of the Republic of Bulgaria.
